| Hillelís Secret | Diary (Wimpy Kid Style)  |
|-----------------|--|
| ó A Dramati     | ic, Totally True Diary of Growing Up Under Communism ó                   |
| Sunday, Octo    | ober 1st   |
| Today Mommy     | y said weÍre starting a Ìnew projectÎóme writing down everything I learn |
| about why I     | canít go to school like normal kids. She calls it ipreserving history.î  |
| I call it Ìwri- | ting in secret because Ilm sweet toast if anyone finds it.Î              |
| Apparently,     | most kids forget their earliest years, but not me. Living under Soviet   |
| rule is like ha | ving the worldís longest, worst field tripóexcept you never see the      |
| bus or get bo   | ack home.  |
| Unfairness R    | dating of Today: 100 out of 10 (because I have to write a diary AND keep |
|                 |  |

| ł | niding it).  |
|---|--|
|   |  |
| ١ | londay, October 2nd  |
| _ | This afternoon, Tatty told me about the Inew regimel after 1917. He said the   |
| c | ommunists started a Iruthless battle to eradicate religion.Î                   |
| ١ | 1e, lying on the couch: ìErase religion? Thatís like erasing soccer balls from |
| F | laygrounds! Impossible!  |
| _ | atty looked grave. They said ëfreedom of religioní was law, but if you didnít  |
| f | ollow communist rules, you were in serious peril.Î                             |
| 1 | tried to imagine ibeing in perili and nearly fell off the couch. Peril sounds  |
| P | ointy.   |
|   |  |

| Mommy shouted from t    | the kitchen: ÌHillel, donÍt imagine sharp things.               |
|-------------------------|---|
| So on the unfairness s  | scale, 1917 was at least 90 out of 10. (Way worse than eating   |
| cold cholent.)          |   |
| Tuesday, October 3rd    |   |
| Grandma (Zeidyls wife   | ónot to be confused with Zeidy) visited and whispered about the |
| .930s. She said when    | the government was at lits peak, I people were shot in NKVD     |
| ellars and sent to Sibo | eria to dig holes in the Arctic.                                |
| 1e, whispering back: Ì  | The Arctic? Like penguins and polar bears? But isnít that       |
| where momĺs ice cream   | comes from?Î  |
| Zeidy gave me a dirty   | look. iNo, Hillel, penguins live in Antarctica. And this isnít  |
|                         |   |

| ć | n joke.¶  |
|---|---|
|   | Egot that chilling shiverólike when you open the freezer door for too long.       |
| + | Also, they call the secret police by scary nicknames: Ìdrei osiyosî (three        |
| ١ | ettersóGPU, NKVD, KGB) or the ÌkneplÎ (button). I think a knepl might be a giant  |
| ł | outton that SHOOTS you if you press it. Unfairness Rating: Arctic level699 out of |
| 1 | ١٥.   |
| ` | Nednesday, October 4th  |
| _ | Today I pretended to nap while Mommy told me about orphans being sent to          |
| ì | reeducationî homes. They called Torah and mitzvos ipoison of the masses.î         |
| ł | Ewwópoison.   |
|   |   |

| Me, daydreaming: ìSo they teach poison for breakfast? And feed you broccoli?î      |
|--|
| Mommy: ÌItís not funny, Hillel.î   |
| I know itís serious. But iorphanage reeducationi sounds like a really weird summer |
| campówith no fun, just lectures about why Hashem isnÍt real. That must be the      |
| worldís worst camp ever.   |
| Unfairness Rating: 88 out of 10 (some things sound worse than others, right?).     |
| Thursday, October 5th  |
| Tatty introduced me to the Yevsektziaóthe ÌJewish sectionî of the secret police.   |
| Me: iYevñsekñtzee-uh? Sounds like a sneeze in Yiddish.!                            |
| Tatty laughed. IIt was no joke. These were Jews who abandoned Judaism and turned   |
|  |

| ih       | to the biggest enemies of Jewish life.Î   |
|----------|---|
| I        | tried to imagine someone switching from eating matzah to eating treif and saying,   |
| В        | lech, tastes like defeat.Î  |
| 17       | hen I realized: these Yevsektzia guys arrested Rabbi Yosef Yitzchak Schneerson in   |
| -        | 27! That's the Lubavitcher Rebbe! Arrested by fellow Jews who forgot what being     |
| Je       | ewish means.  |
| J        | nfairness Rating: 10 million out of 10. Because arresting the Rebbe is just the     |
| V | orst.   |
| -1       | riday, October 6th  |
|          | oday was iHistory Details Day.i I had to sit through a 45-minute lecture on how all |

| Jewish    | schools and yeshivas were closed. ALL of them.                                 |
|-----------|--|
| Me, doo   | odling on my notebook: I drew a giant X over every yeshiva, then labeled one   |
| ìPublic S | School of Weird Lies.Î   |
| Mommy     | : ìStop drawing during MommyÍs lecture.î                                       |
| Me: ÌSo   | rry, but how do you draw ìMarxism-Leninismî anyway? Itís not like it has a     |
| cool syn  | nbol.Î   |
| Afterw    | ard, Tatty said, ÌAll Jewish children had to register in those new government  |
| schools.  | î  |
| Registr   | ration sounded harmless until he explained: teachers would knock on neighborsí |
| doors a   | sking, iAre there any school-aged children here?î                              |
|           |  |
|           |  |

| ٢ | Ty head started pounding. The Goldberg kids might squeal on me if they saw me.       |
|---|--|
| Ú | Infairness Rating: 200 out of 10 (because you could get snitched on by your          |
| r | neighbors, of all people).   |
| ١ | 1otzei Shabbos, October 7th  |
| P | ostñShabbos thoughts: I dreamed of a hide-and-seek game, but the seekers had         |
| c | lipboards and badges. I woke up sweating.  |
| 1 | E decided to make a ÌHide Better Planí:  |
| • | Learn every hiding spot in the house (even behind the water heater).                 |
| • | Create decoy stuffed animals that look like me in my hiding spot.                    |
| • | Develop a silent hand signal with Yankel for litís safe.Î                            |
| F | Project ÌHide Betterî has begun. Unfairness Rating: minus 10 (because at least I get |
|   |  |

| new mission).        |  |
|----------------------|--|
|                      |  |
|                      |  |
| Sunday, October      | - 8+h  |
| ,                    |  |
| Mr. Daniel Boriso    | ovitch came todayóremember him? Hels the gentle Yiddishist who first |
|                      | , ,  |
| pelieved the commi   | nunists would help everyone, then realized they were liars.          |
|                      |  |
| His apartment sm     | melled like old books and black tea. He told us how, once parents    |
|                      |  |
| refused to send k    | kids to government schools, the schools said Fine. You choose the    |
| teachers.Î           |  |
|                      |  |
|                      |  |
| Parents cheeredó     | othen thud. the schools quietly replaced each teacher with a       |
| communist agent.     | ONE BY ONE.  |
| -                    |  |
| 4. HT 1/ 11 1/       |  |
| re: 1 thatIs like it | f you pick vanilla ice cream, but someone swaps it with pickled      |
|                      |  |

| herring ice cream    | while you blink. No thanks.î                                     |
|----------------------|--|
| DanielÍs eyes filled | up. IWe forced kid after kid to eat treif bread on Pesach. They  |
| clamped their lips   | shut tight like steel doors.î                                    |
| I nearly spilled my  | y matzah ball soup. How do you force-feed Pesach treif bread?! |
| Thatís next-level c  | ruelty.  |
| Unfairness Rating    | g: 777 out of 10.  |
| Monday, October      | 9+h  |
| I had an idea: wh    | at if kids formed their own secret teachers club? Then the       |
| communist teachers   | s wouldnít know any of us.                                       |
| Tatty said, ÌSome    | families did just thatósecret yeshivos in basements.Î            |
|                      |  |

| Me: ÌBasement yeshiva! Thatís like a superhero lair but for learning Torah.Î        |
|---|
| Mommy: iYes, but super dangerous.î  |
| So now Project ìBasement Yeshivaî is on hold, thanks to Danger Levels.              |
| Tuesday, October 10th   |
| Today we learned about the governmentls final move: closing down almost all the     |
| shuls except one or two in big cities. Even then, each shul needed twenty committee |
| members, most loyal to the secret police.   |
| Me: iTwenty people just to say hello in shul? My tzedakah box has more people than  |
| that.1  |
|   |
| Mommy giggled (quietly, of course).   |
|   |

| -11     | .,,  |
|---------|--|
| Those o | committee members would report anyone who brought children to daven.       |
| Imagir  | ne going to shul and seeing someone scribble your name in a giant red book   |
| labeled | ìFuture Traitor Candidates.î Eek.  |
| Unfairr | ness Rating: Shul version of ì49 out of 10.î                                 |
| Wednes  | sday, October 11th   |
| Chaim   | Tchernovitzer dayóugh. Heís the big Committee Guy in our one permitted shul. |
| Every   | tourist from abroad has to be igreetedi by Chaim. He yanks them aside and    |
| says, Ì | Iím KGB. Without me, this shul is closed. Donít help anyone else, or Iíll    |
| have yo | ou deported.Î  |
| Me, ima | agining: II came all the way from Texas to daven, and this guy tells me to   |
|         |  |

| scram. Texas barbecue wonít help me here.î   |
|--|
|  |
| Tatty once told me, iMost people who dare go to that shul are old people with        |
| ,  |
| nothing to lose.Î  |
|  |
| Me: iZeidy, I think losing your lunch counts as Esomething to lose, I right?         |
|  |
| He just winked and changed the subject.  |
|  |
| Thursday, October 12th   |
|  |
| Today I heard Mommy say ichinuchî and got excited. Chinuch means ieducation,î but so |
| much moreóspiritual, emotional, religious. Itís like a full-body, all-over-your-     |
|  |
| noggin kind of teaching.   |
|  |
| Mommy said Jewish parents had to hire melamdim (teachers) or do it themselves        |
|  |
|  |

| *several times a week*óand keep neighbors from noticing.                         |
|--|
|  |
| Me: iMommy, I think my best chinuch idea is to teach the dog Torah. Then no one  |
| would suspect *him.*î  |
|  |
| Mommy gave me that ìOh, Hillelî look and shook her head. Guess ìDog Rabbiî wonít |
| fly.   |
|  |
|  |
| Friday, October 13th ñ Erev Shabbos  |
|  |
| Tatty got home from work looking like a wet challahómore tired than after racing |
| Yankel around the courtyard (I lost, obviously).                                 |
|  |
| He told us Chabad Chassidim were risking everything to teach kids in secret      |
| yeshivos. They summoned their innermost souls and fought with courage.Î          |
|  |
|  |
|  |

| Me: iFighting with courage? That sounds like sword fights.!                          |
|--|
|  |
| Tatty laughed softly. iMore like sword fights with doubts and fear.i                 |
| I decided my sword is a pencilóand IÍII keep writing, no matter what.                |
|  |
| Motzei Shabbos, October 14th   |
|  |
| Shabbos is over and I realized something: even when everything is stacked against    |
| usóclosed schools, no shuls, spies everywhereóour parents still found a way to     |
| keep Torah alive.  |
|  |
| It's like they have hidden fuel tanks under the floorboards, full of secret          |
| strength.  |
|  |
| I might be a kid stuck in a hiding game, but IÍm also part of that secret fuel tank. |
|  |
|  |
|  |

| ness Rating: Canít measure itóbecause sometimes unfairness itself fuels the  |
|--|
| ind of triumph.  |
| of Chapter One Notebookó   |
| : Operation Stealth Alef-Beis, where I test whether the walls really do have |
| tay tuned.   |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|  |